

Festival Kiba Kreyól 2008 August 1-3, Havana, Cuba

Bannzil Kiba Kreyol is a non-governmental cultural institution dedicated to the study, conservation and dissemination of Creole language and culture in Cuba. Founded in August 1997, it has a membership of Cubans, Haitians, descendants of Haitians and students in Cuba from countries that speak Creole (Martinique, Haiti, Guadeloupe, St. Lucia, French Guyana, the Seychelles Islands, Reunion, Rodrigues, Cape Verde).

The “Festival Kiba Kreyol 2008” will be held in Havana. The main objective of the Festival is to stimulate the study and conservation of Creole in Cuba and the wider Caribbean area, and to encourage an exchange of experiences among all those interested in conserving and strengthening Haitian identity.

Festival events include lectures, discussions, theatre, dance, arts, and music.

Fees: $50.00 pesos in National Currency for Cubans, $50.00 CUC (pesos convertibles) for foreign participants.

Sponsors include: Casa de la Cultura Julián del Cazal, Centro Juan Marinello, Asociación Caribeña de Cuba, and the Cuban Commission for UNESCO.

This year the festival is dedicated to our 5 Heroes who are Prisoners of Imperialism.

To register, contact:

Hilario Batista phone (53-7) 877-6628 or (53-7) 644-6178

email: hibafe@infomed.sld.cu or hilario@rhc.cu

Armando Cordie phone (53-7) 831-8236, Gisela Fernández phone (53-7) 862-8903